Business Portfolio

Our area of expertise is to provide PR Management for companies producing special programs or projects in corporate entertainment. This might entail us to handle, develop and implement overall public relations programs and activities of your business project. The programs would include media relations, community relations, corporate communications and strategic planning w/ special events.

PR-Franchise, Inc. is a full service PR Firm business based in New York City and managing projects across the globe. We cover projects based on popular programs in corporate entertainment such as: Art Exhibits, Benefit Fundraisers, Corporate Parties, Fashion Shows, Film Screenings, Networking Functions, Prominent Venues, Promotion Parties, Sponsored Events, Professional Talent, Sports Entertainment and more.

Our business is mainly composed of two factors: Media Management & PR Strategies. We aim to provide the best options and PR Solutions to our clientele based on the PR relationships we have with the media, celebrities, strategic partnerships and corporate clients. PR-Franchise, Inc. continues to expand and improve relationships with specific projects that create recognition, visibility and strategic partnerships. Our objective is to advocate productive benefits to both the professionals and the general public, which differentiate us to any other PR Firm.

The Founder

The founder essentially designed a concept of an influential PR Firm w/ dynamic media capabilities. Founder's background includes a bachelor's degree in Marketing from the renowned St. John's University. The profile continues with over 10 years of work experience starting with internships, freelancing and placement in some of New York City's leading companies such as Citicorp, Vibe Magazine, Chase/Chemical bank, Jive Records of BMG Music, Pyramid Entertainment Talent Agency, Atlantic Records of Time Warner, Office of Major League Baseball and Microsoft Corporation.

The founder developed an eye for coordination, organization and key client relations as an administrative assistant. In that time, this certain individual continued to apply educational and corporate career essentials that led to favorable exposure and achievements. One of these successes was a recent role as an Executive Assistant and Marketing Coordinator for one of the most top-rated full service PR agencies in the world. In a career-growth based PR Firm, the same individual enhanced the professional skills, services & talents in the division of Interactive Marketing. This area provides online consulting services to improve and promote a corporation's public relations involvement. Due to sincere appreciation and combination of all elements described, this individual was able to build the foundation of PR-Franchise, Inc.

All the credit to creating this key-site and influential PR Firm is truly dedicated to those individuals, professionals, and corporations who make up the one individual, named: Marc Antoine - Founder of PR-Franchise, Inc. The trademark & business personality associated with all known projects by the company is professionally known as: Toni-Mateo - CEO & PR Executive Coordinator.
